

H. C. to Lord North.

3813

New May 23. 1780 ^{on} 17. A. C.

Considering the desire of the Leaders of Opposition to delay every Business before the House, much seems to have been gone through Yesterday, and I should hope will shorten the length of Debates for the remaining part of the Session, which I sincerely wish as much for the personal ease of Lord North as for the advantage of Public Affairs.

[Faint, illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

23 May 1980