Sir

I have often attempted to be introduced to your Royal Highness to have the Honour of kissing your R. Highnesses Hand, and flattered myself about six weeks ago with the hopes of seeing you at Windsor & there to have requested that Honour.

I am sorry to hear Parliament has not augmented your income to what your rank entitles you to, and what you justly merit. I have the sum of two thousand pounds at present by me, much at your Royal Highnesses service, and if you will condescend to accept of it, I will immediately forward to

You a Draft on my Banker (Child & Co)
for that Sum

I have the Honour to be with the most profound respect

Your Royal Highnesses
Obedient humble Servant

Chas. Barrow.
