Shrewsbury, Sep 7th

Your Royal Highness's servant overtook me last night, thus far advanced on my way towards Ireland. I have only to regret in my departure from home, that it has given him so much additional trouble. I shall not fail to attend Your Royal Highness in town, at the time fixed, as I hope you considered certain when you expressed the wish to see me. The unwearied kindness with which you have been pleased to honor me, would be most undesirably pro-

-ceded did I not feel the highest gratifica-
-on in setting aside for your convenience any plan of my own. With the justest sense of Your Royal Highness's goodness towards me, & of the kind language you have deign-
-ed to use in your letter, I have the honor to remain Your Royal Highness's most respectful & most devoted servant

J. B. M.

H. R. Highness
The Prince of Wales.
