

Lord Rawdon
Sept. 12th 1777

to Capt.
Payne

From Lord Rawdon

38227

London, Sept 12th

My dear Sir

I have received yours of yesterday. Present my duty to the Prince: and entreat that His Royal Highness will replicate his coming to town on Saturday, or next, just according to my notions of convenience which may in the interval occur to him. I beg him to consider my time as entirely at his disposal; and hope he will believe I cannot have a higher satisfaction than that I must feel from any proof of his reliance upon my respectful attachment.

I am my dear Sir

Very sincerely yours

C. Payne

W. Pitt

[Faint, illegible handwritten text in cursive script, possibly a letter or document fragment.]