

Lord Chancellor
Mansel to the Prince of Wales

Nov. 9. 1788.

His Majesty's Illness

Ormond Street
9 a.m. Nov. 9. 1788

The Chancellor begs leave to acknowledge the receipt of your Royal Highness's Letter; and to express the great sense, He entertains, of the Honour conferred upon Him. He holds Himself in readiness to obey your Royal Highness's commands any moment, He receives them.

There now appears some gleam of Hope, that His Majesty's unhappy Disorder points to a Crisis, and Termination of which His most devoted Friends must prefer to the total deprivation of His Reason.

Chancellor to the Prince
