

The Prince of Wales
to
The Lord Chancellor

The Prince to
The Chancellor
delivered by The

Nov. 19. 1700.

His Majesty's illness

38260

My Lord,

The day being passed on which I expected to have had the pleasure of hearing from you, I have order'd my private Secretary Captain Poyne to wait upon Your Lordship by way of carrying you a journey to ~~you~~ <sup>by post, and</sup> ~~as I thought you wd~~ <sup>as I thought you wd</sup> ~~be~~ <sup>most</sup> likely be here on the eve of the Meeting of Parliament. And you have any thing particular to communicate either by ~~Letter~~ or message, <sup>or otherwise</sup> ~~otherwise~~, it will by ~~post~~ be immediately convey'd to me, both with security & dispatch. I remain My Lord, Windsor Castle.
Nov. 19. 1700

Yours
O. J.

