My Dear Sir

I return you my best thanks for your very kind & friendly letter.

I propose to be at Windsor tomorrow morning, having the list of Sheriffs as named by the Council, to lay before his Royal Highness which (if his Royal Highness should be busy or abroad while I am there) I shall take the liberty of leaving with you.

I shall enquire for your apartments when I stop, & shall be very happy to meet with you at home.

The Public seem to be deeply impressed with the character of the Prince - His Royal Highness' conduct during the present disastrous conjuncture.

(Whatever issue it may please God to give it,) will never be forgotten by the Country.

Believe me to be My Dear Sir Ever sincerely & faithfully Yours
J. Eschme.
