

From here until No. 38321 the papers have been re-arranged, but their new positions are clearly indicated

The Duke of Portland to
The Prince of Wales
3^d Dec. 1788.

38304

The Duke of Portland takes the liberty of offering to Your Royal Highness the answers of the Physicians without waiting for the Questions for which he sent to the Clerk of the Council, that Your Royal Highness may be supplied as expeditiously, as possible of all the information which it is in the Duke of Portland's power to submit to your Royal Highness

Whitehall House,
Wednesday, Dec 3^d Dec^r 1788
half past ten o'clock

W^m from the Duke of Portland to His R^y

Enclosing the Answers of His M^t
Physicians, before
the Privy Council

