

The Prince of Wales
to
The L^d Chancellor

Letter to the Chancellor

Dec. 9. 1700.

38322

My Lord

I am just arriv'd from Kew & the Queen has desired me to acquaint you that her Majesty wishes much to see you tomorrow morning & to have some conversation with you. As the Queen is a very early riser your Lordship may safely go to Kew at ten o'clock as she desired me to say that she would not stir out till she had seen you. I myself shall be happy to see your Lordship on Thursday morning, any hour before the house meets that may be convenient to yourself & beg you will name the hour, as I am very desirous of having some particular conversation with you

I am My Lord most affectionately
Dear Sir
Decr. 9. 1700
I remaine Yours
G. C.

Desiring his attendance
on Her Majesty at Kew.

