

H.S. Pratt. Correspondence of Prince of Wales vol. I no 381

To express to his R. H. our sincere ^{sympathy} condolence with his Royal Highness in the affliction on the affliction he suffers from the ~~deplorable calamity of~~ ~~his R. H.~~ his Royal Highness, her Majesty the Queen, the Royal family & the whole nation suffer from the heavy visitation which has disabled the King from ~~performing~~ ~~the duties of his office~~ of the exertion of his ~~the~~ continuing to exercise as he has done to the Prerogative, & ~~the~~ comfort of his people the arduous functions belonging to his Royal authority; by which that by this dreadful calamity his faithful subjects are fallen into a general conder:nation, ~~that~~ the National Councils are a stand - & that every act of State Legislature & Revenue ~~the administration~~ we acknowledge to be the duty of constitutional in the Crown are ~~at a stand~~ ^{suspended}.

His Majesty's faithful Subjects suffer under the public witness extraordinary dispensation of the evidence, ~~for which the laws~~ have not ~~prevented~~ their look

That in this exigency ^{whilst} ~~scarcely~~ ~~upon the~~ ~~state~~ ~~by~~ ~~an~~ ~~extraordinary~~ ~~dispensation~~ ~~of~~ ~~provi-~~ dence, this House turns its eyes book for assistance & consolation to hunt for their relief & con--tation in the education of the of his Royal Highness the that heir apparent of the Crown, to whom in all im-

-possibilities, the rights of the Crown are naturally devolved, whose ^{rights} interest ^{in the} places them in the most careful & whose virtues promise to the Nation the most salutary & constitutional exertion of them.

That this ~~Assembly~~ ^{Assembly} hopes that his Royal Highness having ^{more than sufficiently} ~~expressed~~ to the private sentiments of his fidel ^{trusting} ~~affection~~ ^{affection} has ~~been~~ ^{been} ~~listened~~ ^{listened} to the earnest supplication of his Majesty's faithful commons, & undertake the duties & cares of govern-ment, until his Majesty shall be restored to the anxious prayers of his Royal Highness & his people, & that he will believe he persuaded that in no way can he longer hate to the world his ^{rights} ~~rights~~ attachment & reverence to his Majesty his Royal father than by taking upon him ~~the~~ ^{the} -charge the Charge of the welfare of ~~his~~ ^{his} ~~faithful~~ ^{faithful} ~~subjects~~ ^{subjects} so constantly the objects of his solicitude & ~~affection~~ ^{affection} by supplying the care & protec-tion which nothing but the Hand of God could prevent his Royal father from extending to his people.

That his Majesty's faithful Commons humbly trust & pre-sume, that at this time of affliction & destitution of all the ordinary means ^{of their safety & happiness} from ~~their~~ ^{their} ~~relation~~ ^{relation} to his Majesty a just claim on his Majesty for his services, ~~which they in~~ his internal affairs his Majesty.
It. That they will take all necessary steps to support & ~~bring~~ the ~~peace~~ ^{peace} ~~continuance~~ ^{continuance} of his Majesty's Highness in the full exercise of those Rights which the constitution for vice & salaries purposes has vested in the Crown of these Kingdoms.

Majesty & his Royal Highness
-stant Goal for the Rights of the Crown, & from the most good will of his Majesty disposition
