

Lord Mordaunt
20th Oct. 1709.

Chancellors letter on giving the living

38511

28. Oct. 85.

Sir

The delay, I have met with, in receiving your letter, was owing to a mistake, by which it was sent after me into the country; and I am to beg you will make this apology to His Royal Highness for its not being answered sooner.

I am very happy to receive His Royal Highness's commands; and am only to beg, you will inform me, who the gentleman is, and whom I can send to Him, that I may lose no time in obeying them. I have the honour to be

Sir
Your most obedient humble servant
Thur low.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on a piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet.]