

From Mr. Barclay

Capt Paine

Woodstock 17th August 1792

Sir

I did myself the honour to call several times at Carlisle on purpose to learn from you when it would be agreeable to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to allow me the honour to present the enclosed address of the County of Merioneth, which I have the honour to refer to. As I had the misfortune not to find you there and as I am informed that his Royal Highness will not soon be in London - and as I am under the necessity of leaving it - I hope you will have the goodness to present the address - and to assure his Royal Highness that the respectable Baronet who signs the address - and every man within that County, has the strongest attachment to his Royal Highness, and his Illustrious family, and are firmly resolved to maintain good order within their County

I have the honor to be

Sir

your most obedient humble servant

David Gray
