

Charles Jenkinson

June 17 1780

3878

I have just received the Inclosed from Mr Robinson, as it seems to be of some portance, I presume to send it to your Majesty immediately.

Lord Mansfield has just been with me complaining that no one has talk'd to him or consulted him on the Proceedings in Parliament on Monday. I have apprized Lord North of this. — Lord Mansfield appears to be very much depressed.

From your Majesty's
Obedt^h Servant
June 17th 1780
No 10

Dutyful Subject
C. Robinson

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged paper, possibly a list or ledger with multiple columns.]