My Dear Payne,

The conversation you have been so good as to communicate to me with I am sure will have the best effect & H. R. H. could not have made a choice that would have been more applauded. I shall certainly mention it to no one, the act ought to be distinctly marked as proceeding from H. R. H., <sup>the effect of</sup> It should not be anticipated by any talk about It & the Persons He is disposed to distinguish. I have no knowledge of It, till they have the honour of receiving his commands.

27 Jan<sup>ry</sup> 1798/

I ever am Sir J. Payne
Y<sup>r</sup> most sincerely Loughborough
