

Duke of Richmond & Lennox to H. R. H.

Aug. 2 1793

38828 - 9

Sir,

Your Royal Highness
having expressed a Desire to be informed of such Regulations as I might wish to have established at Brighton on Your Royal Highness's Regiment going into Camp there, I have the Honor to enclose some which I submit to Your Royal Highness it might be proper to Issue.

I have a thousand Pardons to beg beg of Your Royal Highness for having mentioned Chailey Common instead of Ashdown Forest as the Place where we shall be on Sunday the Eleventh, and where I trust I may receive the high Honor Your Royal Highness was so good as to give me hopes of, of Your taking a Camp Dinner and of seeing the Line fire a Feu de joye in Honor of Your Royal Highness's Birth Day which is the Day after.

Ashdown Forest is within a Mile of the Direct Road from Lewes by Uckfield to London.

It is with the most profound

I have the Honor to be

Sir

Your Royal Highness's most obedient and most humble
Servant
