

Col. W. Dabrymple to H. R. H.

Apr. 24 1795

39079-80

Sir,

In obedience to Your Royal Highness's commands, I have returned Your Royal Highness's message, and communicated Your Royal Highness's sentiments to the Duke of Clarence, who being much agitated at Your Royal Highness's displeasure, commands me to say, that he has never uttered one word either at Theobalds or elsewhere that could be interpreted to Your Royal Highness's disadvantage; that W. P. D. has ever had the greatest regard, love & affection for Your Royal Highness, and that nothing could give him more real concern, than that any thing which W. P. D. might have inadvertently said should cause the least breach between Your Royal Highness & him. As to the destination which Your Royal Highness commended me to send W. P. D. in answer said, that he should go immediately to Lord Mordaunt, who, being in the habit of conversing with Your Royal Highness, W. P. D. would Royal situation with may

J.
 W.

Col. W. Dabrymple to H. R. H.

Apr. 24 1795

39080

would speak to upon the subject. I urged Your Royal Highness's commands as far as my situation would permit, and I trust Your Royal Highness will receive my satisfaction. Your Royal Highness may require -

Your Royal Highness's
Most Obedient Servant

St. James's
April 24. 1795.

W. Dabrymple
Lett

W. Dalrymple
April 21st 1795.

W. Dalrymple
Apr. 24. - daly to a invasion
it. of Dalrymple

39081

Mr. P. D. wish not to say the deduction too strongly. In that sumed too much for P. D. to give. But an incantation of paper might be hereafter used, that would call P. D. home in question - I humbly think what has been said, will have great weight & be a check at least upon that unfortunate

1808

Disposition of talking led by the the multitude upon matters that so materially concern W. P. D. & the rest of W. P. D. family -

