Lord Hillsborough is not able to find words to express to Your Majesty his dutyfull and gratefull Sense of your Majesty's great Goodness and Condescension to him. He is most humbly thankful for the leave your Majesty is pleased to allow him to withdraw himself for a short time. He is much indisposed at present, but hopes to be able to pay his Duty to Your Majesty on Wednesday or Thursday next. He has the Honour to lay before Your Majesty the Draughts to W<sup>m</sup> Cumberland, altho' the Situation he is in may have prevented them from being as correct as he could wish he flatters himself Your Majesty will not disapprove of them
