Warrants & Letters

3925

(1)

Lord North was prevented by a Council, & by various interruptions, from departing yesterday before his Majesty was set out for the country: He, therefore, has come to trouble his Majesty with the inclosed Warrants, accompanied by two Letters of intelligence the first from Mr Toole more to be commended for its truth than its sincerity, & the other from Mr Morice.
