

Duke of Bedford to H.R.H.

Feb. 3 1799

39552 - 3

Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Royal Highness's letter and am extremely concerned to learn that I have been deprived of the honor of receiving your Royal Highness by so unpleasant a circumstance tho' I trust all danger is past - I must entreat of your Royal not to consider any engagement to me further than is consistent with your own perfect convenience and that your Royal Highness will believe that at all times I shall be most happy to receive you - the season is so decidedly bad and that roads in such a wretched state that added to the situation of Prince George that if your Royal Highness could not have London without its being attended with great inconvenience if so I beg of

Duke of Bedford to H. R. H.

Feb. 3 1799

39553

Your Royal Highness rest to think of it but that you will have the goodness to fix any other time more suitable to you - I shall with punctuality deliver your Royal Highness's message to the Duke - I cannot conclude his without saying your Royal Highness that I shall ever return a truly sincere of the many kind expressions contained in your letter in which continued I beg leave to subscribe myself

Yours
 Your Royal Highness's most devoted & very sincerely faithful servant
 Bedford

Return
 Feb 3 1799

The Duke of Bedford
July 3. 1799.