

ld. Hillsborough

Sep. 23 1780

3965

Lord Hillsborough flatters himself Your Majesty will pardon the liberty he takes in expressing to your Majesty the great Joy and Satisfaction he feels upon the News of the Queen's safe Delivery of a Prince, & his sincerest hopes that Her Majesty is as well as can be expected, & the Prince, perfectly well. Lord Hillsborough humbly requests Your Majesty will be pleased to accept his most dutyfull congratulation upon this happy Event. -

Hill Parker

September 23. 1780. -

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a piece of aged paper, possibly a letter or document fragment.]