(Copy of a Letter to The Earl of Jersey Dated Nov. 3<sup>d</sup> 1800.)

My Lord.

The Prince of Wales Commands me to request Your Lordship will excuse my replying to your ~~Letter~~ Letter, which Indisposition ~~the~~ <sup>concern</sup> ~~has~~ He feels for circumstances which have been so long out of his power to remedy, could only prevent H. R. H. from answering himself.

I am further Commanded by The Prince to say, that in certain Arrangements which ~~H. R. H.~~ <sup>H. R. H.</sup> long since made, & which unexpectedly have not yet met their completion, every consideration was given to Your Lordship's Claims and ~~the~~ <sup>with every</sup> ~~most~~ <sup>all convenient</sup> positive Directions signified ~~to~~ <sup>dispatched to</sup> discharge them.

The Prince

is perfectly sensible of Your Lordship's delicacy in suggesting your Demand, And H. R. M<sup>ty</sup> directs me to tell Your Lordship, that He has given ~~strict~~ orders it shall bear the very earliest attention as to the entire amount of it: But, in the mean while, A Fund is probable to arise at no distant period, that shall enable such a sum in part being remitted to Your Lordship, as may perhaps tend to your temporary Accomodation;
of which event, By H. R. M<sup>ty</sup>'s Command, I shall have the honor to give Your Lordship the <sup>speediest</sup> ~~earliest~~ information.

I have the honor to be,
My Lord, With great Respect,
Your very Obedient Servant.
J. M.

Earl of Jersey.
