Dear Sir

I mention'd to W^m R^h the baronet's steward-ship in the Duchy, W^m R^h assur'd me to Admiral Poyne, saying The Admiral would do every thing that would be pleasant to me. He did so, and Mr Gray wish me to say he had order'd to make out the deputations in favor of my friend Mr Colting of Cheshampton - to whom I forwarded the information, surely The Duke of Northumberland will not desire all this to be undone,

Understanding

you have some Commission in this business, and relying on your friendship I have taken this liberty which I hope you will excuse

I remain &c &c

Very faithfully yours,

H. Holland

Col. M. Mahon.
