Downing Street.
July 27th 1803.

Upon receiving the Letter with which Mr. Addington was last Week honor'd by The Prince of Wales, He inform'd His Royal Highness that it should be immediately laid before The King.
This was accordingly done, and the Letter is still in His Majesty's Possession. - A Communication was

H. 1.
afterwards made to His Royal Highness
The Prince of Wales in a Grove, and thro' thro' a Channel, which Mr. Addington humbly hoped His Royal Highness would approve. Mr. Addington however now finds it to be incumbent upon him, in consequence of the expectation which has been express'd by His Royal Highness, to state, that His Majesty, on being inform'd of the Sentiments, and Wishes of The Prince of Wales, applauded in the strongest
