

ld. Thurlow to H. R. A.

9 Sep 1803

39966-7

Lord Thurlow has the Honour to submit to your Royal Highness's Consideration the Scroll of a Letter, wherein in the D. of R.'s Ideas are turned, and accommodated to the new Plan.

He still finds Himself somewhat at a Loss to discern the Utility of the measure; at least, of any Part of It, but the last Paragraph, which, perhaps, may facilitate the Publicity of your Royal Highness's Conduct.

Ld. Thurlow to H.R.H.

9 Sep 1803

conduct. But he cannot presume to offer Advice upon a Subject, with which He is so little familiar.
The Advice of your Military Friends would be more authoritative; and that of your Parliamentary ^{Superiors} more apt for the Occasion;
but your Royal Highness's Judgement will, as It ought, not only controul the Measure, but be frame the Representation to suit your own Ideas.

L. Thurlow's main object has

39967 has been a Care not to prejudice the Place, your Royal Highness has taken in the publick Opinion.

Lord Thurlow
to
The Prince of Wales

Relating to the question of His Royal Highness's desire to hold higher Rank in the Army