

Ld. Stourmont

4005

St James's Novr 15. 1780
5. p. M.

The Letters which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to send me are very important indeed and will deserve the most serious Consideration. It strikes me upon the first View of this Business that the two great Objects to be aimed at are to keep the Contest with Holland quite distinct from the Neutral League, and to defeat if possible all of Paris's hostile Intentions by avoiding every Dispute with Russia.

