My Dear General

I am in receipt of the Remittance which I received this morn-ing and have inspected the same than it has actually done were it not that I got at the same time one from James. By the latter he would be able to apply vice versa

2000 pounds which I had put to him to the liquidation of the bills you mention; for I had requested him to to dispose of it if he could suspend which I was glad he has done / another application of it. This causes me in a delay that had taken place about getting my for drafts on you: which I still expect this afternoon but not before there therein about the best horse bill of exchange is unprofitable to us. I earnestly hope the Prince will not give up his Regiment. Alas! how I always lamented those letters. My situation here is laborious & heavy beyond mea-
