

Lord Moira to Col. J. Macdonald, July 5. 1804. Cf date below

40075

July 5.th

Infinite thanks to you for your being somewhat eased of mind respecting our beloved Prince. With what a calamity this Country was menaced by his illness!
I do assure you that the anxiety occasioned here, by the report that his malady was serious, proved not gratefully the exalted estimation in which he personally stands. Ever most truly yours ————— Eyes much better.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a piece of lined paper pasted onto a larger sheet.]