Dear Sir

Madrid March 6.

at the dispersion of the property of the House of Alba, I was fortunate enough to get possession of a sword which had belonged to the celebrated Duke who commanded in the Low Countries if it should be thought worthy of a place in His Royal Highnesses Armoury, I would beg of you to make an offer of it as a token of my humble duty and respect. I am Dear Sir

J. Tyrwhitt Esq
with great truth
Your faithful humble Serv<sup>t</sup> J. Freer
