

Id Moura to Col. McCahon

40160-1

Dunblough, May 10th

My Dear General

I have a most kind letter from the dear Prince, as well as a long political one from you but I can not answer His Royal Highness till tomorrow on account of a review.

Prince will rather dine in his room & you is becoming due. Make him accept

1d. 1
0812A
The enclosed & here will discount it for you at Simpson's, as I can not till the beginning of next week and a re-mittance from Lence. You are to accept ~~£~~ 2000 at 90 days for the 10th in favor of James Gibson, which is provided for but was required at the moment.

Call in at Cox & Greenwood's to see how the ^{amount of} pay can be got for Adjutant Pater, here

Id. Moura to Col. McMahon

40161

be - heard in the enclosed, as it all seem the son follows a journey to London

Affectionately yours

Id. Moura

Colonel McMahon

1870

Lord & Moore

May 10. 1807.

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper]