Tuesday Night, 20 July 1804

Sir.

In answer to your Letter dated yesterday which I have just received, I can only say, that as I have no Vote, or any Concern whatsoever in the Middlesex Election, and have never been in the Habit of interfering in matters of this kind, I must decline the Office of a Nominal Steward which you propose to me, & at the same time distinctly require that my Name (which in itself can be of no Use) shall not be mentioned, or brought forward on the Occasion

I am Sir, &c

J. Gregory Esq<sup>r</sup>

Chas. Mack
