No. 2

Sir

In the Hack I saw you this morning You communicated to me something of a ~~letter~~ ^{message} from Baron Eben of which I require the Particulars, If Capt.
Eben is attended at any thing the Paper contains which I have thought necessary to make public for my own justification, I shall be ready to give him all the satisfaction he may demand, upon his making it appear that the Letter shown by him to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales - was the same he actually received from St. Quentin - I am his your with love

Richard

Sept 22^d. 1664

P.S. - The above being written previous to the receipt of your note is an answer to it.
