

Charles Jenkinson -

Dec. 16 1780

4032

They leave to lay before Your Majesty a Letter this moment received from Major General Sir William Osburn to the Adjutant General, and as Sir William Osburn desires taking the Command, They leave to submit to your Majesty's pleasure, whether the Command of the intended Expedition may be offered to Colonel Meadows, and that he might have the local Rank of Major General for the Expedition.

Near Whitehall

↳ after 12 P.M. 16th Dec^r 1780.

Amherst

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]