Dunburgh, Dec 15, 1804.

My Dear Colonel

This morning has a plaid sheet had passed me. A Miss Heppiger arrived, demanding of attendance in town. I find that the piece did not show to Mr Pitt the Report which I sent back by Lewis, therefore I have some fears that H.R.H. & c not have been satisfied with it. Still, I think it was all that the Prince ever wished should be explained; and I am persuaded the Ministers thought they were acting in consequence of it.

You will have two bills presented for acceptance of £2000 each; which I have
- then only to apprise you that it is right as I shall explain when I see you. The

I regretted of the sum of £10 otherwise
I had led you to imagine there was a mistake.

As an ostensible letter to notify of being on the road might be expected, I said you are.

Yours faithfully
Theriac

Colonel McKeown
