

C. J. Fox to Col. McKechnie

40364

Dear Sir As it is not quite certain that the answer will come to day, I think it would be safest to appoint the meeting of what you call the Cabinet for Thursday. Indeed if my answer is wanted for, as your letter seems to imply there would be scarcely time for summoning it effectually tomorrow. —

I may probably be in town tomorrow but in case I should not, may I trouble you to write a line to say where & at what hour Thursday the meeting is to be. The Post comes in here very early in the morning, but whenever you have occasion to write to me in a hurry there is a morning & evening Chertsey Coach one of which sets out at seven A. M. the other at two P. M. from the Gloucester & the House Piccadilly. — I am with great regard, Dear Sir, C. J. Fox.
