

Ed. Dartmouth.

Dec. 25 1780

4045

Sir

I should be very unworthy of your Majesty's good opinion, if I could suffer any one belonging to me to be put about the Person of the Prince of Wales, whom I did not think fit to be entrusted with so important a situation. If I am not mistaken in my Son, your Majesty & the Prince of Wales will not be disappointed in your Expectations of him. Every fresh mark that I receive of your Majesty's favor & goodness to me adds to my happiness but ^{can} add nothing to the Respect & Reverence with which I am,

Sir,

your Majesty's

most dutiful & faithful
Subject & Servant

Sandwell
25 Decr 1780.

Dartmouth