

Ld. North

Sunday

7

4053

Lord North has the honour of acquainting his Majesty that either from the newness of the Box, or the badness of L^{ds} North's key, he cannot open the Box. That Mr Robinson is out of Town, & no Locksmith to be met with, as it is a holiday. Lord North hopes it will be not thought troublesome or impertinent in him to repeat for a moment the use of his Majesty's key

Sunday afternoon.
