as the Subt War makes it absolutely necessary to provide more effectually for the inward Defence of this Country, more particularly the Essex Coast, Thames, Medway & the Eastern & Northern Coast agreed that it be submitted to His Majesty as the opinion of this Meeting that it is expedient to raise as soon as possible Eight thousand Men in Ireland to be upon the English Establishment. These Men to be raised in such Manner as shall be judged best either by Regiments or Companies
