Lord Grenville

Downing Street Oct. 14. 1806.

Sir

I am infinitely indebted to Your Royal Highness for your condescending letter which I have this morning received.
His Majesty has signified to me his consent to the measure of the Disolution, and it can no longer be kept secret, because because of the great number of persons to whom it must necessarily be communicated with a view to their making their different arrangements in consequence of it. I will not fail to converse with Lord Morris on the hint which Your Royal Highness has the goodness to throw out, but the time is so short as not to allow much room for such an intrigue. This is one advantage

Yours

which results from a paper on point of time which on many other accounts is advised with considerable inconvenience.

I have the honor to be with the utmost respect & deference

I am

Your Royal Highness's most obliged and dutiful servant

A. R. H.

Green

The Prince of Wales.
