

Lord Erskine to

Col. Mac Mahon

Dec. 13. 1806.

40875

Dec 13 1806

My Dear Friend,

I have seen Mr. Edyar and you cannot think how I have been vexed about this living before it became vacant (as indeed about every other) & I have upon my list hundreds & hundreds that stand upon expectation unfulfilled. Yet as I cannot feel comfortable in refusing you anything, you may tell him (as it is you that give it him) that we shall have it

I have said nothing —

Yrs. most faithfully
Erskine

Dec. 13th 1806 —

40875

My dear friend,

I have seen Mr. [Name] and you cannot think how I have been vexed about the thing before it became so and so indeed about [Name] (I have seen your [Name])
 I have been that kind of a [Name] [Name] of a [Name] for [Name] in [Name]
 you say that you may tell me [Name] [Name]
 that you are [Name] that the [Name] [Name]
 I have been writing you [Name] [Name]
 [Name]

Dec. 13. 1706 -