

Edward Topham to Col. DeMaho

40876

York - 16th December
1806

My dear Sir;

I presume you have not yet had the opportunity of laying before the Prince the Statement in my last letter to Lord Carlisle. I see the Presentation to West Merton is now completed and the dower disposed of to his Steward. Of course, on that subject nothing more can be done: but to regret his duplicity of conduct.

Should you not already have written to Me with the Sentiments suggested of the Prince, Address to Me

Marsden House

Colne

Lancashire

where I am going for 10 days or some Business.

For something in Yorkshire the Prince may probably not be previously engaged.

Believe Me my dear Sir

y^{rs} most truly

Edw. Topham
