

Lord North

Jan. 28 1781

4089

Lord North has the honor of inclosing for his Majesty a Draft of a reply to the address of the House of Commons.
If it is equally convenient to his Majesty to receive the House of Commons at three o'clock, it will suit their business as well, & the House will not keep his Majesty waiting, which may happen, should an earlier hour be appointed, as it is very difficult to get a house ~~ready~~ before three o'clock. but if his Majesty prefers two o'clock, Lord North will endeavour to have forty members at the House by that time.

Jan: 28. 1701.