His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales having been graciously pleas'd to approve the wishes expressed by several friends of the late Lieut. General Simcoe of giving a public testimony to the Character & virtues of that very amiable man & highly distinguished Officer has condescended to signify to the Lords Lieutenant of Cornwall, Devon & Somerset his gracious intention of contributing towards the expense of a Monument to be erected in the Cathedral Church of Exeter by the Contribution of the Military & other friends friends of the General, & of such of the nobility, Gentry & Clergy of these three Counties as may be desirous of expressing in this manner the sense their estimation of his services & Character, & of the essential support & assistance which the civil authorities & military officers of the Western district received from him during the period of his Command.

In obedience therefore to this gracious declaration the Lord Lieutenant of the Western district do hereby give notice that a Subscription is opened for this purpose which will continue open till one month after the summer assizes, when a Committee will be appointed to sit
