Friday night

Half past twelve

Sir

The vast volume of the Report has made it impossible that the business could be fully closed this night.

There were corrections & alterations requiring to be written out for, which necessarily imposed another sitting: but it will be all added tomorrow night, & I am positive, so as to give your Royal Highness the fullest satisfaction. His will be completely in time for the enjoyment of your dining at the Queen's Palace on Monday. Congratulating your Royal Highness on this speedy termination of an anxiety which you ought never to have suffered after all your previous forbearance, I remain Sir

Your Royal Highness's

most devoted respectful servant

Thos. Pitt

A. K. H.

The Prince of Wales.
