Chesham House

Jan. 26. 1808

Sir.

I have the Honor to enclose a Copy of my Letter to Lady Shiffild, and I have this Day received an answer, to say that The Princess of Wales desires to be informed if your Royal Highness did not allow her 17000 £ per an: exclusive of the 5000 £ settled by Parliament and if her Expences did not annually exceed that sum. when she first went to Chesham.

Having a perfect Recollection of all that passed at the time relative to to Peumary concerns, I must hope your Royal Highness will be pleased to lay your Command upon me before I again write to Lady Sheffield.

I have the Honor to be

Sir

Your Royal Highness

most obliged

Devoted Hum^{ble} servant.
