

Baron E deu to R. H.

41056

Carlton House the 26th March 1808.

Sir

I have the honor herewith to submit to Your Royal Highness, the outlines of my Plan for raising a British Free Corps to serve in the Brasils -- Your Royal Highness in your wanted Benignity will I trust do justice to the motives by which I have been actuated in the conception of my Plan, they are founded solely on the laudable Ambitions of rendering myself, as far as within my power, useful to the Country, which I have the honor to serve.

Permit me therefore Sir with due Submission to claim Your Royal Highness' indulgent protection and support towards the accomplishment of my views -- Under such such auspices there can remain no doubt of my success and I shall in the Event further beg leave to solicit the favor of Your Royal Highness's special patronage in allowing this Corps to assume the honorable title of The Prince of Wales's Brasil Troop

I have the honor to subscribe myself

Your Royal Highness's

most faithful and
Obedient Servant
Fred Baron Eben
Major

His Royal Highness
The Prince of Wales
