

Lord Darnley

to HRH

May 20th 1800.

Evidently the origin of the interview re-ferred to in preceding letter.

41067

Carlton House

May 20th 1800

Sir

I certainly should not so soon again have intruded myself on Your Royal Highness if I did not particularly wish to see you on a subject of much importance to myself, and as it will not admit of any delay, I trust Your Royal Highness will

Yours

70011
forgive my repeating my desire to be admitted to your presence this morning even after the refusal I have had the honor of receiving from your Royal Highness

I am Sir

Your Royal Highness

most devoted, and

Obedient servant

Samuel