Carlton House. Friday
2 P.M.

Sir

I understood by enquiring at Buckingham House (where I have left my letter) that the Duke of Rutland comes to Town today and I think it of consequence that the application which your Royal Highness has so generously & kindly promised to make should meet him on his arrival in Town - I trust

Your Royal Highness will forgive these repeated intrusions, and believe me as I most truly am

Your Royal Highness's most Obedient and most faithful servant

Samuel

P.S. I wait Your Royal Highness's command
