Sir

I had not the Honor to receive y^r. letter of the 15 instant till yesterday and too late to reply to it by that post. the whole tenor of y^r. letter of the 11th instant appear'd in my mind to exclude the possibility of my addressing you otherwise than officially and my letter of the 12th was purely official as might have been perceived by the tone I thought it my duty to assume. I shall lose no time in laying the whole correspondence before His Royal Highness the Commander in Chief

I have the Honor to be

Sir

Y^r most obed^t. Servant
