The Prince of Wales

Wilmington, Sept 16th 1870.

Most truly happy I shall be in receiving your Royal Highness on Monday the 19. Your goodness puts me out of any difficulties about accepting that honor with the insufficient accommodation of a separated household. The Duke of Saxe-Coburg will add much to the gratifica-tion, and I need not solicit your Royal Highness to bring them also you may wish to from your Party. I have several Coveys of Partridges which have not had a single shot fired at them.

With infinite respect & gratitude, I remain, Sir,

Your Royal Highness's
Most attached &
Devoted Servant

The Prince of Wales.
