Cobham Hall Jan^y 12th

1810

Sir

Through personal inconvenience it may occasion, I am always ready to obey your Royal Highness's commands, and therefore hope to be at Carlton House on Sunday at one, or very soon after.

Lady Darnley and the Children are highly sensible of

Your

Your Royal Highness's kind attention to them, and beg to add their affectionate respects to those of

Your Royal Highness's most faithful

and most devoted servant

J. M. L.
